This Time Connemara Beats Firenzi by Six Lengths.

Larchmont Takes the Brookwood Handicap from Favorite Santalene.

Defense, Question, Patrocles and Fordham Win Other Races.

PERCUAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. RACH TRACK, GRAVESEND, L. L. Sept. 28. Picking winners at Brooklyn to-day was the hard est of tasks. Climax was a certainty for the first race, but Defense upset the talent's calculations and those who hadn't played Climax for place as well as straight resolved to get the bets insured next time. Father Bill Daly's Specialty was an equally goo thing for the second race, but Senator Hearst's pretty chestnut filly, Question, made the pace from the start and Specialty not making her run quite early enough, failed to get better than place. Santalene was a hot favorite for the third race, but Larchmont captured the prize, with the Calltornian not even one, two, three, The Boulevard Handicap was a continuation of he woes of the talent. Firenzi was the favorite, though at better odds—even money—than had been bet about her in some time. Connemara made another runaway race of it, and paid $52.70 for $5 in the French mutuels.

The City of New York Arrives at Queens town After a Rough Experience.

ISPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD. QUEENSTOWN, Sept. 28. - The unfortunate new Inman line steamer City of New York arrived here to-day after a very rough trip. She reported having met with continuous gales, causing almost a panie among the

The vessel was to have sailed Wednesday Sept. 19, but was defained by the need for repairs until 5 o'clock the following morning. She crossed Sandy Hook bar at 7.20. Twelve hours later she was sighted by the City of Berlin 170 miles east of the Hook.

Interviewed About the Result in the Pine Tree State.

Sure Harrison Will Carry New York, New Jersey and Connecticut.

The Plumed Knight Will Arrive Here at 7 O'Clock To-Night,

BOSTON, Sept. 28.—The hope of the Republican party-James G. Blaine-was found at Young's Hotel by an Evening World man this morning. Mr. Blaine appears to be in the best of health.

"Don't ask me to talk for an interview." said the pride of his party to the reporter, as he extended his hand. "I haven't time. Besides when I have anything to say I can tell it in my speeches and you can get it at

"Rut THE EVENING WORLD wants to know your opinion of the Maine election, Mr. Blaine. Is it as big a Republican victory as you expected ?"

"But was it large enough to affect the

"But was it large enough to affect the country?"

"That depends upon the feelings and preferences of the men who interpret the result. It was large enough to satisfy me that the Mills bill was not indorsed by the voters of Maine. In fact the Democrats of Maine have never made a fight to win but twice since the war. The first was 1880, when they whipped us. The second was this year. I think the people of the country know how Maine has gone in 1888. I am satisfied."

the country know how Maine has gone in 1888. I am satisfied."

"Do you think there is any danger of Harrison's deteat?"

"I can see none. New York is a large manufacturing State and will assuredly vote for Protection. The same can be said of Connecticut and New Jersey. The closest State of the North will be Indiana, but I think Gen. Harrison's personal popularity and the interests of the working people will give us a good majority there. My opinion is that Harrison and Morton will carry every Northern State, also California, Oregon and Nevada. They will get a large majority of the electoral vote, if I am not greatly mistaken."

"How many speeches will you make this majority of the electoral vote, if I am not greatly mistaken."

"How many speeches will you make this fall. Mr. Blaine?"

"I shall talk as much as my voice will permit. I have not spoken for so long that I find an hour's speech in a big hall very trying to my larynx. Still. I am taking good care of myself, and hope to sustain the strength of my voice until the end of the campaign."

"And your general health. Mr. Blaine?"

"Splendid. I eat heartlly, sleep well and cannot complain of a single ill. I feel that I am blessed with an excellent constitution which I am taking every pains to preserve. I had rather have good health than anything else in the world."

Walker Blaine, polite and gentlemanly: "Joe" Manley, always genial and always loaded with good stories, are with Mr. Blaine at Young's. Of course all the Republican magnates honored him with their cards, and all considered a smile and a grasp of his hand better than a benediction.

Line at 1 o'clock this afternoon, and is due in this city at 7 o'clock this evening.

The Republicans have made great preparations for the Plumed Knight's reception and the mass-meeting at the Polo Grounds tomorrow evening. Rooms have been engaged for Mr. Blaine and his son Walker, and while Mr. Blaine, Gov. Foraker, Major McKinley and the other distinguished Republican speakers are in town they will be the guests of the Harlem Republican Club, a committee from which body will see that they are well cared for.

There will not be any demonstration on
Mr. Blaine's arrival, the Harlem Club knowing that the Maine statesman does not like that sort of thing as a rule. He will therefore go quietly to his hotel along with the Committee and rest until to-morrow.

Chauncey M. Depew, having accepted an invitation to speak at Pawling, will not be present at the meeting as expected.

Among the speakers who will be present at the Polo Grounds to-morrow night besides the man from Maine will be Congressman William E. Mason, of Chicago, Gov. Foraker, Gen. Woodford, James P. Foster, W. C.
Plummer, John F. Finerty, Gen. A. E. King,
Congressman Butterworth and A. L. Morrison.

Consumption Carable.

It cannot be too often impressed on every one that the much dreaded consumption (which is only lung scrofula) is curable if attended to at once, and that the primary symptoms, so often mistaken as signs of diseased lungs, are only symptoms of an unnealthy liver. To this organ the system is tucheled for pure blood, and to pure blood the lungs are indebted no less than to pure air for healthy action. If the former is polluted we have the hacking cough, the heetic flush, night-sweats and a whole train of symptoms resembling consumption. House the diver to healthy action by the use of Dr. Pikhen's Golden Medical Discovery, take healthy excredes, live in the open air, and all symptoms of exercise, live in the open air, and all symptoms of consumption will disappear. For weak lungs, spitting of blood, shortness of breath, chronic masal catarra, bronchitis, asthma, severe coughs and kindred affections it is a most wonderful remedy.

Detroit .

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] Polo GROUNDS, Sept. 28.—The cold weather today seemed to have the same depressing effect apon the expected large crowd as did yesterday's ain. Not more than four thousand people saw o-day's game, and those who did were for the most part wrapped in overcoats.

'T he have been rumors that to-morrow the grands would be decked out in gala dress, that there would be a balloon ascension and other fesivities in honor of Manager Mutrie and his team of Giants. But President Day this afternoon said that though some such things had been planned, the idea had been given up owing to the extreme diffidence and modesty of Mutrie himself.

When Chicago gets here, however, there may be something done in the way of whooping it up. This afternoon the first game of the last serie with the Wolverines was called at 3, 45 o'clock. Detroit is now tied with Boston, and Capt. Hanion said this afternoon that it would take some pretty tall ball playing on the part of his Club to peat the Bear-Enters out. The Giants presented their Jersey pattery, Tit-Comber and Murphy, and opposed to them were Gruber and Ganzel.

Connor received a holiday and O'Rourke took his place at first base.

The Wolverines took the field,

O'Rourke went out on a time drive to Hanlon. Ward fined out to Nicholson. One run. Twitchell hit safely to left and took second on Ganzel's baser to right. The invited guests, who numbered about two hundred and fifty people, were after the entertainment treated to a sumptuous collation. Toasts were responded to by several prominent business men.

ALLENTOWN ATTACKS WIEGAND. Jersey City Has a Plaint Against Newark

O'Neill Suspended. DAKLAND PARK, JERSEY CITT, Sept. 28.—The Allentown nine has a grievance, and if their story s true it is deserving of investigation by the diectors of the Central League.

They claim that they were robbed of two games at Newark yesterday by the decisions of Umpire Wiegand, whom they charge with gross unfair-

Umpire Holland was assigned to umpire the rames but falled to materialize, and Wiegand was ubstituted. The Allentown boys charge that a director of the Newark Club stood by and coached him in his occisions. Man after man of the Newarks, they say, was sent to his base on balls, and it was in this way that Newark scored its winning runs.

These are very serious charges and are supple mented by another made by Manager Powers, of the Jersey Citys, who says that on the occasion of his Club's last visit to Easton he was permitted to see a telegram from Newark offering the Easton players new beaver overcoats if they would take raine from Jersey City.

The two games won by Newark yesterday gave them an apparent lead over Jersey City for the pennant, but there are a number of games protested which may not be allowed to stand.
Up to to-day the record is:

Newark-Won, 81; lost, 23. Jersey City-Won, 82; lost, 25. Manager Powers says that President Day, of the Giants, has not decided to graduate any of the lersey players into next year's class of colts. He says that the Club has come to stay as a permanen Costral League institution and all of its players will be signed for next season.

To-day's game began before an audience of not more than three hundred, with these nines play-

Jersey City was first at bat, and Knowles, Hiland and O'Brien were retired in order, the first striking out, the second tipping and O'Brien retiring on a bounder to Brady.

Allentown scored a run in their half. Roche had lined out to Knowles, when Ward landed a single in left and came to the rubber on a wild throw of Hofford to catch him at second. Gunahan also got on the circuit by a base hit, but was left there.

Second Inning—The three Jerseyites who faced German failed to reach first.

Allentown added another run to the score. Measter reached first on a safe hit, and took second on Daley's wild throw to O'Brien. He scored on Brady's line hit over second. Brady was caught stealing second, Williams dying on a bounder to Lang. German's fly was muffed by Corcoran. Rootstop O'Neill, of the Allentowns, was suspended just nefore the game to-day for publicly accusing Manager Reuter of seiling the games at Newark yesterusy.

Third Inning—Jersey City put in her best licks and passed the Allentown boys with a score of three runs. Hofford led with a base hit. Daley was given his base on tails. Hofford scored on Lang's fly out to Gunshan. Knowles tipped out. Hiland's two-base hit in left brought Daley home, and Hiland scored on O'Brien's single in right. Friet filed to Brady.

Allentown went to the field without a base.

Fourth Inning—Although Hofford got his base on balls and Daly sent him to third with a double-bagger to right, Jersey failed to score.

If or Allentown, Brennan sent up a fly which Friet muffed, Meister sent Brennan to second with a single to left.

SCORE BY INNINGS. EAST IS A SECOND ADONIS.

The Handsome Oarsman and the Skilful Bubear at the Ashland House.

George Bubear and William East, the noted oaramen, arrived from Liverpoot last night on the City of Rome, and both are staying at the Ashland oarsmen, arrived from Liverpool last night on the City of Rome, and both are staying at the Ashland House, in Fourth avenue. They are the latest addition to the galaxy of scullers who are to compete in the Madison Square Garden match in October. William Glies East is a comparatively new figure in rowing circles, but he has taken rank as a professional at a remarkably youthful period. His age is but twenty-two years and he is a native of London. His father is a well-known boatman on the Thames, and young East has been in a boat ever since he was able to sit in one. He is a fine specimen of manhood, a blonde, with ruddy complexion and the form of an Adonis. His height is feet 10% inches. His eyes are clear, nenetrating and blue, and his profile such as will be admired by the thousands of ladies who will visit Madison Square Garden the week of Oct. T.

East has a good record for a youngster and has already figured as one of the first in road-aculling races. His first matic on the water was with Foliet, four years ago on the Thames, and he was beaten through a tack of judgment at the start. He challenged Carr to another race, but the latter did not accept until he discovered that East was about to leave for this country.

Two years ago Bubear and East rowed a double-scull race with Teemer and Hamm on the Thames and were beaten.

Subsequently East took part in the first road-sculling race in London at the Aquarium, when six English oarsmen and Wellace Ross were the competitors. Ross won, making 530½ miles in twenty-eight hours, and East was second. Later on East and Ross beat the tricyclists Keens and Stanton in a long race in London.

East is disheartened to-day over the loss of a pug dog, which he brought from England, and is engaged to-day in scouring the town for the animal.

George Bubear is too well known to require any description. He is in fine trim and looks like a new trip the start was and to be a second.

George Bubear is too well known to require any description. He is in fine trim and tooks like a winner. He has had experience on the new-rangled rowing machines at London, and can get over the ground at a lively rate—say seventeen miles an hour. Y. M. C. A. Course at Greenpelut.
